

In the United States Court of Federal Claims

No. 20-1784

(Filed: July 8, 2024)

CHEVRON U.S.A. INC. et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

UNITED STATES,

Defendant.

ORDER

Pending before the court is the parties’ joint motion to amend the discovery schedule. ECF No. 54. The parties ask the court to “extend the deadlines in the case schedule by six months.” Id. at 1. The parties represent that they “have continued working diligently on discovery” but “agree that additional time is needed for fact discovery to ensure that the parties have adequate opportunity to review their respective document productions, produce additional documents, and conduct additional fact discovery.” Id.

For good cause shown, the parties’ joint motion to amend the discovery schedule is GRANTED. The court adopts the parties’ proposed schedule:

Event	Deadline
Close of fact discovery	February 3, 2025
Plaintiffs to designate affirmative expert witnesses and provide reports	August 1, 2025
Defendant to designate expert witnesses and provide reports	October 1, 2025
Plaintiffs to designate rebuttal expert witnesses and provide rebuttal reports	November 14, 2025
Close of expert discovery and completion of expert witness depositions	January 15, 2026

It is so ORDERED.
